Dear Mr Malagihal,

Please may I introduce myself as the Master of Sidney Sussex College and congratulate you on being selected as a Pavate Fellow?

I have the pleasure of confirming your Pavate Fellowship for a four-month period from 1 January to 30 April 2024. Please let my PA, Alice Brown, know your travel plans, and particularly your confirmed arrival date and estimated time of arrival at the College, once these have been finalised. Although your appointment is from 1 January, University life doesn't really get going until a bit later because of the holidays, so you may prefer to arrive towards mid-January and stay until mid-April. This is what most of your predecessors have done but it is your choice. The University's Full term begins on Tuesday 16 January and it is our normal practice to welcome our Pavate Fellows, along with any other new College Fellows, before dinner on the first Friday of term (Friday 19 January). The last day of Lent Term is Friday 15 March.

During your Fellowship you will be a senior member of Sidney Sussex College, and we are very much looking forward to welcoming you into our academic and social community.

During your stay you will be provided with accommodation, and will have the dining privileges of a Fellow, which entitles you to up to nine free meals (lunch or dinner) a week during term. There is a charge for wine. You may also bring a guest at your own expense. Formal dinner is served at High Table on Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays at 19:30 during term. Fellows are encouraged to dine as frequently as possible, and in particular to make every effort to dine on Fridays, which are Fellows' nights. On Fridays, the dinner is for Fellows and their guests only, and not for people with dining privileges. Any meals taken through the cafeteria will be chargeable. The details of the arrangements for rent and other aspects of your stay are given on the attached sheet, which also provides more detailed information about meals etc.

Your research work will be undertaken within the Judge Business School, where Professor Jaideep Prabhu, will act as your mentor.

We look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible with regards to your plans for arrival. Please check with the Judge Business School as to what kind of visa you require.

Yours sincerely

The Master: Professor Martin Burton MA DM FRCS
